

Lynn Berkley-Baskin

Equity Educator

Lynn Berkley-Baskin is an equity educator, community organizer, abolitionist and a Juilliard trained opera singer. She bridge-builds at the intersections of academia, racial justice, community health and development to drive systemic change. Leadership positions include Sierra Health Foundation's Healthy Sacramento Coalition Steering Committee, Greater Sacramento NAACP Executive Committee, and Jewish Community Relations Council Board of Directors. She co-founded Sacramento Faces Race and Justice2Jobs Coalition, and co-piloted Folsom Lake College's Student Equity Advocates. Lynn's current focus is building a participatory justice ecosystem through education, economic restructuring, and criminal justice reform. She is married, has two children and a bichoodle named Quincy Jones.