

Niki Jones

Outreach Worker, Peer Crisis Counselor & Volunteer Coordinator with Mental Health First Sacramento

Niki Jones is a Sacramento organizer who works on the decriminalization of homelessness, access to housing and healthcare, and, of course, abolition and racial justice. She has been a harm reduction-based street outreach worker since 2014 and is a Peer Crisis Counselor and Volunteer Coordinator with MH First Sacramento, a community-based mental health crisis intervention team.